Guide to Making a Personal Access Data Request

Introduction

Failte Ireland is aware of its obligations as a data controller, with primary responsibility for, and a duty of care towards the personal data within its control. Fáilte Ireland is a data controller with reference to the personal data which it manages, processes and stores. Data subjects whose personal data is held Failte Ireland are entitled to ask whether the data controller is processing any personal data about that individual and, if so, to be given:

1) A description of the personal data;

2) The purposes for which they are being processed;

3) Information on any organisation to whom that personal data is being, or might be disclosed.

The data subject must also be told about the sources from which the data controller derived the information so long as those sources are available to the controller, and for a copy of the information held, in response to a valid request to that effect.

Subject Access Request Procedure

To see a copy of your own data held by Failte Ireland you will need to submit a written request, email or use the online form. Then send it to the Failte Ireland Data Protection at dataprotection@failteireland.ie or
