VISITOR EXPERIENCE DEVELOPMENT PLANS FOR WEXFORD

Fáilte Ireland has initiated a number of Visitor Experience Development Plans across the country. These are 3-5 year commercial development plans for a region, which bring the public and private sector together to drive visitors and revenue to lesser known areas and attractions, especially in the off-peak season. The themes of the Visitor Experience Development Plans have been designed to enhance each area's strongest tourism assets and appeal to core overseas markets. Vitally, these plans will be delivered in a way that encourages visitors to spend more time in an area, without compromising the environment or culture of the region.

VIKINGS: In Wexford, Fáilte Ireland has developed the 'Vikings' Visitor Experience Development Plan, which sets out to strengthen Wexford's offering as a Viking and Norman destination. As part of this plan, clusters of Viking experiences in Waterford, Wexford and Wicklow are being researched under the working title "Viking Coast". Initial results from consumer testing show that international consumers find the concepts motivating and interesting. The next phase of research is currently underway and involves testing itineraries with tour operators and buyers. The outcomes of this research will feed into the Viking Development Activation Programme in the coming 18 months.

CASTLES AND CONQUESTS: Fáilte Ireland's 'Castles and Conquests' Visitor Experience Development Plan in Wexford aims to bring the castle experience to life for visitors through guided tours as well as evening experiences and re-enactments. This Visitor Experience Development Plan has also led to engagement with industry in Wexford on the development of The Norman Experience, a special project connecting attractions in New Ross and Hook Peninsula. The area has been identified as having the potential to evolve as a strong connected cluster of attractions which can draw international visitors to Wexford.

MARITIME: This plan aims to bring to life Wexford's maritime heritage and unlock the economic growth potential of the area by developing existing and new experiences that will attract more visitors. Cork City, East Cork and Waterford will also be part of the wider Maritime Visitor Experience Development Plan.

TALES OF TWO WORLDS: A number of Wexford businesses are now taking part in a bespoke 15-month Great Houses & Gardens Experience Development Programme. This programme is looking at the house and garden experiences available across the county including ways to develop guiding, events, cost and revenue management and sales distribution.
