The Dublin Coastal Trail

A city by the sea and with a UNESCO Biosphere accolade for its majesty, Dublin’s coastline is dotted with unexpected experiences & adventures. A wonderful addition to your city break, there are numerous visitor centres; the Dublin Coastal Trail highlights many hidden gems running from Skerries to the north of the city to Killiney in the south. By navigating the rail to the trails featured stops in small villages and harbour communities, you can easily explore castles, beaches, outdoor activities, heritage, amazing accommodation, local food, and much more. Have an adventure & a city break with a difference in as you follow the Dublin Coastal Trail. From stunning sea views and thrilling water-based activities to the freshest sea food, here is a guide to the incredible adventures and experiences that await you along the Dublin Coastal Trail.

For further information go to www.visitdublin.com

Attractions

Skerries Mills
www.skerriesmills.com
Since the 13th century this flour has been milled at this unique location. The fully restored complex brings to life the authentic workings of a full sail windmill. Visit sail windmill, visit mill shop.

Newbridge House and Farm
www.newbridgehouseandfarm.com
Learn about its illustrious history on a guided tour of this magnificent Georgian mansion and estate and there is fun for all the family on one of Dublin’s best loved working farms.

Dublin Cycling campaign 此案可以理解为阅读自然时的文本表示